

CALL FOR CURATORIAL PROPOSALS

The Klein Art Gallery is currently accepting curatorial proposals to guest curate an exhibition for the Summer or Fall of 2010. The Klein Art Gallery at the Science Center is a non-profit exhibition venue in Philadelphia dedicated to exploring contemporary art that intersects with science and technology. Proposed exhibitions should relate to the Klein Art Gallery's mission.

The chosen curator will be given a stipend, exhibition budget and will work collaborate with Klein Art Gallery staff to execute their exhibition. This call is open to curators residing in the Greater Philadelphia region, artists proposed in the curator's exhibition need not live in the region.

Your proposal should include:

- Curatorial statement with a description of proposed exhibition.
- Work samples for proposed artists, PC+MAC Formatted CD or DVD
- Image list including titles, dates, media, dimensions
- A preliminary budget the proposed exhibition
- Current CV/Resume with Current Contact Information
- Examples of past curated exhibitions including images
- Self-addressed, stamped envelope (if you want your proposal returned)

Deadline for Proposals is Friday January 15, 2010:

Klein Art Gallery
University City Science Center
3711 Market St, Suite 800
Philadelphia, PA 19104

Proposal may also be sent via email to:
kleinart@sciencecenter.org
Web: www.kleinartgallery.org